

STATE CLAIMED
BY BOTH SIDES.

Odell's Managers Give Out Figures Indicating that He Will Come Down from the Country with Unbeatable Majority.

Coler Men Meet this Estimate with Figures of the Leaders in the Boroughs of Greater New York Which Would Indicate Sweeping Victory.

It is all over but the voting and the fireworks, but the result is in doubt. Not in recent years have both Republicans and Democrats expressed such seemingly sincere confidence in the result. Chairman George Dunn is explicit with his figures. He makes Odell's plurality 37,600 and announced to-day that even that may be short.

The Democratic campaign managers are not giving out figures and probably they will not give out any, but they are none the less sure of the result.

This disposition to suppress figures probably results from orders issued by David B. Hill. It extends to the local organization and to Brooklyn. But the figures are in and The Evening World is able to give, from inside sources, what the Democrats below the Bronx are expected to do.

In a confidential communication to the State Committee Leader Murphy, of Tammany Hall, has promised that Bird S. Coler will have a plurality of 72,000 in New York County and the Bronx. Hugh McLaughlin has promised a plurality of 22,000 in Kings, although some of his lieutenants prophesy that the plurality will run to 30,000. Borough President Cassidy, of Queens, has promised Tammany Hall a Coler plurality of 4,000, and Richmond is depended on for 1,500. This makes an estimated plurality for Coler in Greater New York of 99,500, and if it is delivered there appears to be no possibility that Odell can come down from the country with a vote big enough to overcome it.

UP-STATE WORRIES FOR THE G. O. P.

Besides this, there is much up-State of a cheering nature to the Democrats. The Republicans are worried about Erie County, where there are internal dissensions in the Republican party and the Labor vote is lined against the Republican candidates.

Advices from Buffalo are to the effect that Coler will carry the county by 2,000 and that the county ticket will be elected. The Republicans will not concede this, but give no figures. Both sides claim Monroe County, and the Democrats appear to have a chance.

In other districts up-State there is dissatisfaction among Republican leaders that is going to hurt the ticket. Bitter factional fights are being waged among the adherents of Gov. Odell and men opposed to him. Assurances have been received at the State headquarters that the region north and west of Albany will prove to be full of surprises.

The Democrats figure on an increased vote up-State because the party is reunited. They are basing their predictions on the Congressional vote of two years ago when the ticket was weighted down with the hoodoo Bryanism. To-day the Democratic ranks are solid, there are few factional fights of consequence and the Trust question overshadows everything else.

Local conditions from a Democratic standpoint are ideal. Tammany and the Brooklyn organization will get out the full vote, while it has been found impossible to awaken the Republicans from their apathy.

Residents of Greater New York who would not vote anything but a National ticket of their party, are displeased with the way Gov. Odell has favored the rural districts in the tax-rate question. A defection from this source is expected by the Republican managers, but they expect to more than make up for it among the farmers who would like to see New York City, Buffalo and Rochester pay all the State expenses.

DEMOCRACY HAS ALL TO GAIN.

The Democrats in New York and Kings Counties have all to gain and nothing to lose. United they are in a position to enrich themselves for a winning fight for the Mayoralty. The Van Wyck incident has been buried and the discovery has been made that Devery cuts no more figure with the ticket than if he had never figured in politics. As Chief of Police he was a menace to party success. As district leader he is smothered—as shrewd observers predicted he would be.

Undoubtedly the charges of Senator Hill that Gov. Odell used his connection with a Newburg grocery firm to his own profit in purchasing groceries for State institutions has had a depressing effect upon the Republican candidate. He has not answered the charge to the satisfaction of voters, who believe that a Governor should not mix his personal business with the affairs of the State, and there are thousands of these. The denials that have been issued have played the matter into Senator Hill's hands.

The savage attack of Judge Bulger on Gov. Odell in the Borough of the Bronx last night sounded a new note in the campaign that will be echoed all over the State in the final Democratic rallies this evening. No orator in the Democratic ranks is better qualified than is the candidate for Lieutenant-Governor to present an issue fairly to the people, and he has made a paying issue of the attempt of the Governor to play politics with the judiciary.

Judge Bulger is immensely strong up State, especially in the middle tier of Counties, and the party leaders rely upon him to bring thousands of votes to the ticket.

The farewell struggle in these parts will take place to-night in Brooklyn. At Prospect Hall the Republicans will rally under the leadership of Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff. Gov. Odell will be one of the speakers. The Democrats will meet at the Academy of Music, where Candidate Coler will speak.

BOTH SIDES SAY THAT FIGURES FAVOR THEM.

Chairman George W. Dunn, of the Republican State Committee, paused in the perusal of a big stack of telegraphic despatches from up-State leaders to-day long enough to say:

"These later reports arriving to-day all make even a better showing than the facts in my possession when I gave out the statement that the indications were for a majority of 37,600 for Gov. Odell. I expect complete returns from Erie County (Buffalo) to-day, and we have reason to expect a majority of from 3,000 to 5,000 for the Governor there."

Commenting on Charles F. Murphy's (Continued on Second Page.)

CAPT. HAROLD WEEKES,
COLUMBIA'S STAR BACK.MURDER RESULT
OF SALOON ROW.

"Baltimore Blackie" and Companion Smashed Furniture and Fought in Newark Hotel After a Midnight Drunk.

BARTENDER DREW REVOLVER

(Special to The Evening World.)
NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 1.—Four men had a desperate fight in the Capitol Hotel, No. 349 Market street, this morning, resulting in the murder of Thomas Donnelly, bartender, and the wounding of James Orell, proprietor.

A tramp known as "Baltimore Blackie" and another whose name is supposed to be Flood entered the place between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning.

They bought drinks and by 7 o'clock had a jag. Then trouble broke out. Furniture was smashed in the fierce fight that ensued. Donnelly seized his revolver and ran from behind the bar. He tried to stop the fight by threats, then fired his revolver into the floor.

"Baltimore Blackie" broke away from the man with whom he was struggling, and drawing his revolver fired twice point-blank at the bartender. The first shot struck the man in the leg, the second entered his groin. Orell, the proprietor, who was also endeavoring to stop the fight, was shot in the foot. Donnelly was rushed to St. James's Hospital, where he died.

"Baltimore Blackie" and Flood ran away immediately and are believed to have caught a passing freight train on the Pennsylvania road. They are probably still in Jersey City or New York, and the police of both places have been notified to arrest them.

Richard Purcell, who was in the Capitol Hotel at the time of the shooting, has since been arrested. He states that "Baltimore Blackie" tried to shoot Flood. Purcell attempted to take the revolver from him. In the struggle it was discharged three times, the first shot entering the ceiling and the other two striking the bartender.

The saloon is located in "Murderers' row."

Gay Time at Halloween Party.
A Halloween party was given last evening by the Misses Annette Maynes, Mabel Phillips, Beatrice McLoughlin, Ethel Van Dusen and Gladys Fitzpatrick at the home of Miss Maynes, No. 1601 First avenue. The evening was spent in unique games, followed by an old-fashioned supper. Frederick Turner gave a recitation entitled "Halloween."

Magnificent New New York.
Extra 12-page supplement with Sunday's World. Buy a copy to keep. 5 cents.

MALDEN AT 50 TO 1 WINS
FIRST RACE AT AQUEDUCT.

Twenty Thousand Race-Goers at Little Long Island Track This Afternoon.

(Special to The Evening World.)
RACE TRACK, AQUEDUCT, N. Y., Nov. 1.—This was "Sardine" Day at Aqueduct. That is to say it was Saturday and the usual mob of thousands jammed into the place until there was scarcely place to move around.

Aqueduct has not the accommodations of Westchester or Sheepshead, for all ages, and a very interesting field was engaged. A very good race was the last race, at a mile and a furlong, which gave Advance Guard, "The Iron Horse," another chance to show in public.

The weather was charming and the track fast.

YOUNG GUILTY IN SECOND DEGREE.

Jury Finally Reaches a Verdict After Being Out for Twenty-four Hours.

After being out twenty-four hours, the jury in the case of Duncan Young, on trial for the murder of George Eberhardt, returned a verdict of murder in the second degree this afternoon. This saves the prisoner's life, but he will have to spend the rest of it in the penitentiary.

After the jury had been out twenty-two hours Judge Foster called the men back into the courtroom to-day and asked them if he could aid them in arriving at a verdict.

The foreman arose and said the point upon which an agreement could not be reached did not involve a question of law, but dwelt entirely upon the weight of the evidence adduced against the defendant.

"I, however, am prepared to give a verdict," said the foreman, sitting down. Judge Foster addressed the second jurymen, who answered in like manner. Then the third was questioned by the judge and the fourth. The latter boldly stated that he did not think that he could come to any agreement with the rest of the jurors.

By this process of elimination the jury became evident that the fourth juror was the stubborn one. He sent the jury back to their room to make another effort to reach a verdict.

Ladies' Maids on Pennsylvania Special.
An attractive feature for lady passengers on the Pennsylvania Railroad's 20-hour train to Chicago.

Magnificent New New York.
Extra 12-page supplement with Sunday's World. Buy a copy to keep. 5 cents.

U. OF PENN 17
COLUMBIA 0

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—In the second half ePennsylvania waded through Columbia's fast-weakening line. Weekes and Smith, the star New Yorkers, were exhausted, and the Quakers scored two touchdowns. Gardiner kicked one of the goals and missed the other.

This made the final score 17 to 0. The New York rooters who had bet all their money on the Blue and White came home for the second Saturday in succession broke.

OTHER FOOTBALL RESULTS.

At Princeton—Princeton, 10; Cornell, 0.
At Chicago—First half: Michigan, 6; Wisconsin, 0.
At Syracuse—Syracuse, 26; Williams, 17.
At Amherst—Amherst, 16; Bowdoin, 0.

At Middletown—Wesleyan, 5; Dartmouth, 12.
At Washington—First half: Georgetown, 5; W. Virginia, 0.
At Chicago—Chicago, 18; Beloit, 0.
At Fordham—First half: Fordham, 10; Delaware, 16.
At Champagne, Ill.—First half: Illinois, 12; Indiana, 0.

LATE RESULTS AT WORTH.

Fourth Race—Flying Torpedo 1, Nitrate 2, Little Elkin 3.
Fifth Race—Giffain 1, McChesney 2, Vulcan 3.

AT LATONIA.

Fourth Race—Ethel Wheat 1, John McGurk 2, Talpa 3.
Fifth Race—Hardings 1, Christine 2, Sinner Simon 3.
Sixth Race—The Boer 1, Okla 2, Siphon 3.

THE WINNERS.

FIRST RACE—Malden 1, Potente 2, Miss Buttermilk 3.

SECOND RACE—Royal Sammons 1, Uranium 2, Grey Park 3.

THIRD RACE—Annie Lauretta 1, H. L. Coleman 2, Kilogram 3.

FOURTH RACE—St. Finnan 1, Alan 2, Sparkle Escher 3.

FIFTH RACE—Kittling 1, Sweet Alice 2, Captivity 3.

SIXTH RACE—Articulate 1, Six Shooter 2, Glenwater 3.

O'Connor was set down for the balance of the meeting for misbehavior at the track.

(Continued on Sixth Page.)

ANOTHER CRANK
AFTER MISS GOULD

Says She Has Inherited More Millions and He Wants to Tell Her the Good News.

The police of Tarrytown are looking for a man who has been making frequent visits to Lyndhurst, the country place of Miss Helen M. Gould, at Tarrytown, for the purpose of having an interview with her.

She is in Norfolk, Va., and the servants on several occasions have been forced to drive the stranger off the estate.

He tried to bribe them to tell him something about the habits of Miss Gould and where he was liable to find her. He declared that he had good news for her, that she had been left more millions, and that he desired to tell her personally the particulars.

He also called on several other rich women in the neighborhood, and told them the same story of their having been left a fortune.

It is believed that the man is insane, and although the Tarrytown police have been on his trail, he has managed to elude them. It is thought he may have escaped from some institution as he is well dressed and quite a fluent talker, although at times he rambles about great estates left to his friends and neighbors around Tarrytown.

Leading the Wheels of Progress.
The Pennsylvania Special is a pacemaker and a time-saver. Leave New York daily 1:55 P. M. arrive Chicago 8:55 A. M.

Magnificent New New York.
Extra 12-page supplement with Sunday's World. Buy a copy to keep. 5 cents.

MORGAN PLANS
SOFT COAL TRUST

Preliminaries Said to Furnish Reason for His Mysterious Trip to Chicago and Cleveland.

HANNA MEETS FINANCIER.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 1.—J. Pierpont Morgan and party arrived here early to-day from Chicago in a special train over the Lake Shore road. The train was stopped at the Detroit street crossing where Mr. Morgan and his friends awaited and were driven to the residence of Ralph W. Hickox on Lake avenue. It was stated that the party would leave Cleveland late this afternoon for New York.

Later in the day Senator Mark Hanna was a visitor at the Hickox residence and held a conference with Mr. Morgan and his associates, lasting several hours. Mr. Hanna was then driven to his office in the Perry-Payne building. He declined to discuss his interview.

Concerning Mr. Morgan's visit to Chicago and Cleveland, the Evening Plain Dealer to-day will say:

"A report which could not be verified was in circulation today, that Mr. Morgan's visit to both Chicago and Cleveland was in connection with the proposed combination of all the soft coal interests in the country."

"Mr. Morgan is credited with being largely instrumental in combining the soft coal producers in Indiana and Illinois, and it is pointed out that, as Mr. Morgan is largely interested in the movement, his visit to Chicago, as well as to Cleveland, had to do with this project."

SHOWER OF BOXES
FROM THE BRIDGE.

Pedestrians on Prospect street, beneath the Brooklyn Bridge, were astonished about 10 o'clock this morning by a shower of boxes and crates from above, and those who were waiting for cars on the New York side wondered at a delay of fifteen minutes.

A team drawing a truck laden high with empty boxes, owned by J. Haft and Son, No. 83 John street, was near the Brooklyn anchorage.

The driver, Sigmund Hoff, looked around and saw the Brooklyn side of the bridge down on him. As he turned out on the car track the wheel of his wagon struck a big monument stone. The result was a bump off the monument stone, then a rebound off the front of the car, and finally a scattering of the truck-load of boxes.

Some of the empty boxes protruded over the parapet to the street. Others played havoc with the windows of the car. One struck a John Hopkins on the left shoulder.

There was a panic in the car. Also a block on the bridge while the boxes were collected and removed.

Magnificent New New York.
Extra 12-page supplement with Sunday's World. Buy a copy to keep. 5 cents.

PENNSYLVANIA SCORES ON COLUMBIA.

New York Boys Played a Very Plucky Game, Though Outclassed, and Battle Was Roughly Contested, Several Mer Being Put Out of Commission.

Weekes Fell on His Head and Was Stunned, but Again Resumed Play, and the First Half Lasted Over an Hour in Actual Time.

Score, First Half—Pennsylvania, 6; Columbia, 0.

FRANKLIN FIELD, PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—With the hitting 3 to 2 against them, the Columbia gridiron heroes tackled Penn's warriors this afternoon, determined to wipe out the stain put upon their "scoutship" by Princeton last Saturday. Penn, too, had a defeat, two of them, in fact, to make up for, and as a result the game was the fiercest and most closely fought, foot for foot, that Philadelphia has ever seen.

Team Was Handicapped.
Coach Morley brought his team over last night and had them at the grounds at an early hour to run through the signals time after time. The team was badly handicapped by the injury to Capt. Weekes's ankle, and worse than all, Thorpe, the strongest man in the line, was in bad condition owing to a boil on his neck, and it was not known just before the game whether he would go in or not. Pennsylvania, too, was crippled, and, like Columbia, did not know how long to depend on its captain, Gardiner having been injured last week in just the same manner as Weekes.

Morley and Weekes both felt that there was a hard afternoon's work ahead of them, and the partially disabled captain took no part in the preliminary practice, saving his weak ankle all that was possible.

Smith, too, was far from being in good condition, but on the whole the New Yorkers appeared in every way the superiors of the descendants of William the Conqueror. The two teams faced each other. The weather was fine.

The crowd, which was the largest of the season, began to arrive before the gates were thrown open, and the rooters from New York were the first to get past the gates. They swarmed into the stand with the band at their head and immediately began the down or more songs in which they had been coached as thoroughly as the players in their signals.

Thorpe Failed Them.
When Capt. Weekes and his twenty-eight men in uniform trotted out from the two big buses the enthusiasm of the New Yorkers knew no bounds.

There was much disappointment when it was seen that Thorpe was not in his place in right tackle, but Morley hoped that Whitwell would be able to fill the hole successfully.

Goodman went in at quarter in Penn's place, but the disappointment was not entirely shared, the confidence of the rooters, and the line was in nothing like the condition, apparently, as Columbia's.

The halves were twenty-five minutes each. When the ball was put in play, the line was in a bad way, and in a ball mix up, in which there were three distinct fumbles, Penn's line was the better. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Touchdown for Penn.
Pennsylvania took the ball to Coler's 5-yard line on a run around the left end by Bennett. Smith was hurt again and was out of the game for some time. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Touchdown for Penn.
Pennsylvania took the ball to Coler's 5-yard line on a run around the left end by Bennett. Smith was hurt again and was out of the game for some time. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Touchdown for Penn.
Pennsylvania took the ball to Coler's 5-yard line on a run around the left end by Bennett. Smith was hurt again and was out of the game for some time. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Touchdown for Penn.
Pennsylvania took the ball to Coler's 5-yard line on a run around the left end by Bennett. Smith was hurt again and was out of the game for some time. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Touchdown for Penn.
Pennsylvania took the ball to Coler's 5-yard line on a run around the left end by Bennett. Smith was hurt again and was out of the game for some time. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Touchdown for Penn.
Pennsylvania took the ball to Coler's 5-yard line on a run around the left end by Bennett. Smith was hurt again and was out of the game for some time. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Touchdown for Penn.
Pennsylvania took the ball to Coler's 5-yard line on a run around the left end by Bennett. Smith was hurt again and was out of the game for some time. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Touchdown for Penn.
Pennsylvania took the ball to Coler's 5-yard line on a run around the left end by Bennett. Smith was hurt again and was out of the game for some time. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Touchdown for Penn.
Pennsylvania took the ball to Coler's 5-yard line on a run around the left end by Bennett. Smith was hurt again and was out of the game for some time. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Touchdown for Penn.
Pennsylvania took the ball to Coler's 5-yard line on a run around the left end by Bennett. Smith was hurt again and was out of the game for some time. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

The Line-Up.
Pennsylvania Positions. Columbia Positions.
Richardson ..... L.E. ..... Earle
Torrey ..... L.T. ..... Brown
Hoffman ..... L.G. ..... Smith
McCabe ..... C. .... Duden
Pekarski ..... R.T. ..... Thas
Jones ..... R.E. .... Whitwell
Metzger ..... R.E. .... Bennett
Gardner ..... R.E. .... Weekes
Weisher ..... R.H. .... Smith
Hennett ..... R.H. .... Smith

scrimmages. Torrey went into the line for another yard and made it the first down on the next play. Columbia took a brace and stopped the plunges into the line. The play got pretty fierce and both teams were taking their full allowances after each down.

Pennsylvania Wins Point.
After two attempts to go through the line Pennsylvania was pushed back for a loss and dropped back for a kick on Columbia's 5-yard line. Bennett kicked to Goodman, who was downed in his tracks on their 15-yard line, but Columbia was given a yard because Goodman was interfered with in making the catch. It was Columbia's ball on her 20-yard line.

Weekes hurled the line for 5 yards and made it the first down. The line was in a bad way, and in a ball mix up, in which there were three distinct fumbles, Penn's line was the better. Earle saved the ball for Columbia. Smith was hurt again and it looked as though he could not continue much longer. Weekes plunged through the line when play was resumed for five yards, but Columbia was forced to kick. Gardner got clear for a 15-yard run, but fumbled the ball when tackled by Weekes. Richardson poked it up, however, and carried it to Columbia's 25-yard line before being downed by Smith.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was laid up. Smith took 2 through the line and Weekes followed it with a hurdle for 2 more, landing squarely on his head.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was laid up. Smith took 2 through the line and Weekes followed it with a hurdle for 2 more, landing squarely on his head.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was laid up. Smith took 2 through the line and Weekes followed it with a hurdle for 2 more, landing squarely on his head.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was laid up. Smith took 2 through the line and Weekes followed it with a hurdle for 2 more, landing squarely on his head.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was laid up. Smith took 2 through the line and Weekes followed it with a hurdle for 2 more, landing squarely on his head.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was laid up. Smith took 2 through the line and Weekes followed it with a hurdle for 2 more, landing squarely on his head.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was laid up. Smith took 2 through the line and Weekes followed it with a hurdle for 2 more, landing squarely on his head.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was laid up. Smith took 2 through the line and Weekes followed it with a hurdle for 2 more, landing squarely on his head.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was laid up. Smith took 2 through the line and Weekes followed it with a hurdle for 2 more, landing squarely on his head.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was laid up. Smith took 2 through the line and Weekes followed it with a hurdle for 2 more, landing squarely on his head.

Weekes Got a Bad Ball.
He was badly stunned and took his full time to get on his feet. He was pushing march Columbia had the best of it, and Duell made it the first down. Weekes made three more yards, and the ball in the center of the field. Weekes made a run of fifteen around Penn's left end, but was stopped by Penn's line. A beautiful hurdle, going entirely over both teams and scoring another five yards. His ankle was hurt in the run and he was